Packed Pews Part Two: Looking to the Year of Mercy

Continuing the conversations started before the visit of Pope Francis, the Office of Evangelization in the Archdiocese of Washington invites all pastors, parish staffs, & volunteers to join us for Packed Pews Part Two: Looking to the Year of Mercy. In these conversations, we will reflect on our parish experiences of the Holy Father's visit, including the fruits of the visit and ongoing evangelization efforts and opportunities. We will also discuss ideas and plans for celebrating the Year of Mercy in parishes and across the Archdiocese. For questions or special needs please contact Mike Owens, Coordinator of Evangelization, at owensm@adw.org.

Please join us for either conversation. Dinner will be provided!
