

CATHOLIC CHARITIES OF THE ARCHDIOCESE OF WASHINGTON

Catholic Charities is one of the largest private social services providers in the Washington area, serving 120,000 people annually.

- Catholic Charities of the Archdiocese of Washington, formed in 1922 during the Great Depression and incorporated seven years later, continues bringing help and hope to people in the digital age.
- Catholic Charities operates more than 65 programs at 47 locations in Washington, D.C., and in the five surrounding Maryland counties.
- This past year, 8,700 people volunteered to support the work of Catholic Charities and its more than 800 employees
- Serves 4.2 million meals a year to those in need in the Washington, DC and Maryland region
- Doctors and lawyers provide more than $16 million in pro bono services to Catholic Charities' clients
- The Health Care Network provides nearly 2,000 low-income patients and uninsured patients with critical medical care, worth more than $6 million, from pro bono medical specialists
- The 700 volunteer lawyers and 60 participating law firms in Catholic Charities' Legal Network annually provide about $2 million in pro bono legal services for the poor
- Last year, Catholic Charities' programs provided dental, medical and mental health care to 16,000 adults and children in our community
- Catholic Charities played a key role in assisting the D.C. government with the crisis of homeless families by helping 140 homeless families move into their own apartments
- Catholic Charities provides 1,800 beds each night to people who have nowhere else to go, and also offers programs to help the homeless find employment and housing
- Catholic Charities' programs serve adults and children from around the world, including newly arrived immigrants and longtime residents from all different backgrounds and religions
- Catholic Charities annually helps more than 700 adults and children with developmental disabilities
- More than 24,000 people were assisted in Catholic Charities family centers and through Parish Partners
- This past year, over 4,100 volunteers packaged and distributed more than 107,000 breakfasts for the homeless through Catholic Charities' "Cup of Joe" program, and students from 40 Catholic schools, along with local parishes and church groups, collected over 5,700 coats for Catholic Charities' "Joseph's Coats of Many Colors" drive

*Catholic Charities of the Archdiocese of Washington is located at 924 G. St, NW, Washington, D.C.
Learn more about their work at catholiccharitiesdc.org*