Project Rachel Ministry (Post-Abortion Counseling)

Sponsored by the Archdiocese of Washington

This post-abortion healing ministry offers one-on-one referrals to priests or deacons for spiritual healing and to professional Catholic counselors for emotional and psychological healing as well as group healing events: sacramental day retreats and weekly support groups. The ministry services are available in English and Spanish to anyone affected by an abortion decision, including men as well as couples who faced an adverse prenatal diagnosis and terminated the pregnancy.

Teen Mother-Baby Program

The program offers residential care for pregnant adolescents and young mothers up to age 22 and their babies. Extensive services include an accredited high school, medical care, parenting classes, life skills training, day care, individual and family counseling, and social and cultural activities.

Faith House

At Faith House, transitional apartment housing is available for 8 young mothers (18–25 years old) and their children. Residents work toward economic self-sufficiency and stable family life with the help of job placement, day care, parenting classes, and other support. Due to demand, we plan to open Hope House, another transitional housing unit for homeless single-mother families, in our main building in summer 2013.

Child Care Center

St. Ann's Child Care Center provides affordable, developmental day care for infants and preschool children in the community and in residence, including children with special needs, and children from low-income, single parent families and from families in crisis.
