DONALD WILLIAM WUERL
BY THE GRACE OF GOD AND THE APOSTOLIC SEE
ARCHBISHOP OF WASHINGTON

DECREE

To the Clergy, Religious and Lay Faithful of the Archdiocese of Washington:

It is my pleasure to approve and promulgate the new Policies for Catholic Schools within the Archdiocese of Washington. The purpose of the policies is to provide a common and agreed upon instrument for ensuring that our schools are Catholic, academically excellent, well governed and, to the best of our ability, affordable and accessible.

The policies reflect nearly two years of significant work on the part of pastors, principals, teachers, parents, parishioners and archdiocesan staff. Thousands of people were involved in the development of the policies, which will well serve the Catholic schools of the Archdiocese of Washington for many years to come. In a particular way, I am grateful to the archdiocesan staff who dedicated much effort to this project and to all those who took the time to share their insights and expertise throughout the extensive consultative process.

These policies on Catholic education become effective on October 1, 2009 with their implementation to be carried out in stages until the process is complete on July 1, 2010, anything to the contrary notwithstanding.

The alteration and/or interpretation of these policies is the sole responsibility of the Archbishop of Washington.

It is my hope that these policies will assist all involved in Catholic education to achieve our goal of providing students formation in Christ's Gospel and our Catholic faith and helping them grow in their encounter with the living Lord.

Given this fifteenth day of August, the Solemnity of the Assumption of the Blessed Virgin Mary, two thousand and nine in the Archdiocese of Washington.

Archbishop of Washington

Chancellor

August 15, 2009

Dear Pastors and Leaders in Catholic Education,

In October 2007 Archbishop Donald W. Wuerl called together Catholic school leaders, clergy and parish leaders from across the Archdiocese of Washington for a Convocation on Catholic Education. Following that meeting, Catholic school leadership began an 18-month, highly consultative process to develop comprehensive new policies to ensure a bright future for Catholic schools

Because the voice of those directly affected is so important, more than 12,000 people – parents, parishioners, clergy and educators - were invited to be a part of the consultation process. This included surveys, focus groups and a number of meetings. For example, over 1,000 people were invited to attend eight regional meetings in April 2009 to review draft policy options. In addition, the Board of Education, Priest Council and Archdiocesan Pastoral Council were all consulted. Also during this time, in September 2008, Archbishop Wuerl issued a new pastoral letter on education, Catholic Education: Looking to the Future with Confidence.

The resulting policies, the fruit of this extensive consultation, have been approved by Archbishop Wuerl and are organized in four key areas: Catholic identity, governance, academic excellence and affordability and accessibility.

The policies will be implemented in three phases: October 2009, January 2010 and July 1, 2010. Each policy, where appropriate, will be supported by procedures and other material designed to ensure successful implementation.

I am grateful to all those who participated in this historic process – the pastors, presidents, principals, teachers, parents, parishioners, Board of Education members, staff of the Catholic Schools Office and other archdiocesan offices. Policy developed through a consultative process such as this has the power to be transformative as we all seek to strengthen a sustainable system of schools that are Catholic, excellent, affordable and accessible.

Sincerely,

Patricia Weitzel-O'Neill, Ph.D.
Superintendent of Catholic Schools

EXECUTIVE SUMMARY

CATHOLIC IDENTITY

Catholic identity is best expressed by a school's visible communion and cooperation with the Archbishop, the appropriate celebration of sacramental life, the teaching of the faith and an environment permeated with the spirit of the Gospel. Policies in these four areas of Catholic identity apply to all Catholic schools and seek to ensure that the Good News that Jesus proclaimed is truly passed on from one generation to the next through the great blessing of Catholic schools.

GOVERNANCE

The governance structures for Catholic schools vary depending on the sponsoring organization that has overall responsibility for the school. The Archdiocese of Washington, through parishes, has direct responsibility for all aspects of parish and Archdiocesan-owned schools and for recognizing the affiliation of independent schools as Catholic schools. For independent Catholic schools, the responsibility for the day-to-day operations, instruction, financing and overall direction of the school rests with the sponsoring community or organization.

These policies more clearly delineate the relationship between the variety of schools and the Archdiocese so that roles and responsibilities are clearly defined. In addition, for Archdiocesan owned and operated schools, these policies more clearly outline the roles and responsibilities for pastors, chief administrators and other leadership positions.

ACADEMIC EXCELLENCE

Academic excellence is central to the mission of all Catholic schools. It requires uniform policies to ensure that the declaration of the quality of Catholic education is verifiable. These policies address essential Archdiocesan school-wide requirements in four sections: academic/curriculum standards, instructional standards, assessment standards and professional standards. All four sections are designed to support and maintain a culture of excellence based on the highest academic standards for the school community. Individual school leadership and the Archdiocesan Catholic Schools Office support these efforts to sustain the highest standards in all Archdiocesan schools.

Policies focused on curriculum standards define student expectations by content areas and grade level for Archdiocesan K–12 schools. Instructional standards are reinforced by policies that define the expectations for the adoption of engaging learning practices which support effective educational environments. Assessment policies are designed to ensure quality evaluation practices including the adoption of multiple methods of assessment, the continuous monitoring of student performance, the analysis of data to adapt instructional practices and the evaluation of school level progress across the Archdiocese. The last set of policies addresses the professional expectations and requirements essential for a Catholic school community. These policies provide the foundation for the contents of all school handbooks and address the principles of behavior for school personnel, student, families and the wider school community.

AFFORDABILITY AND ACCESSIBILITY

As early as October 2007, during the Convocation for Catholic Education, the consultative process identified the need for a new model for funding Catholic schools that would maximize the use of limited resources to strengthen our schools and more equitably distribute the cost of Catholic education across the entire Archdiocese.

These affordability policies follow on the understanding that the effort to support Catholic schools across the Archdiocese must be shared at both the parish and Archdiocesan levels, that there be a mechanism to more equitably distribute assistance to the schools and that we identify the sources of needed additional funding.

For these reasons, these policies shift support to tuition assistance scholarships in an effort to provide assistance for as many families in need as possible.

These policies call for increased financial commitment at the Archdiocesan level and an increase of the educational assessment at the parish level.

While we look to the future with confidence, these policies do not seek a goal that is beyond our collective means as a Church, nor do they guarantee that each school building will continue in service. Rather, these policies represent the best efforts of an extensive collaborative process to do the best we can to ensure the continued success of Catholic schools in this Archdiocese for future generations.

SECTION 1000: CATHOLIC IDENTITY

1000 CATHOLIC SCHOOLS' PURPOSE

“Education is integral to the mission of the Church to proclaim the good news. First and foremost, every Catholic institution is a place to encounter the Living God, who in Jesus Christ, reveals His transforming love and truth” (Pope Benedict XVI).¹ Catholic schools exist to form young people in the faith and to provide a faith-based environment for their education. In cooperation and partnership with parents – the first educators of their children – these schools seek to educate the whole child by providing an excellent education. Catholic schools cultivate the theological virtues of faith, hope and charity; the moral virtues of prudence, justice, fortitude and temperance; and the intellectual virtues of understanding, knowledge, philosophical wisdom, prudence and art. Based on these three sets of virtues, a comprehensive curriculum shall have as its goal the spiritual, moral, emotional, intellectual and physical development appropriate to the needs of each child. Non-Catholic students also benefit from Catholic school education and are welcomed.

1100 DESIGNATION OF A SCHOOL AS CATHOLIC

All Catholic elementary and secondary schools in the Archdiocese are canonically responsible to the Archbishop and shall maintain true communion with the Church. The Archbishop, as the pastoral head of the Church of Washington, has sole authority to recognize and designate a school as “Catholic.”² All proposed new Catholic schools shall be approved by the Archbishop as a Catholic school in the Archdiocese.

1200 CATHOLIC IDENTITY STANDARDS FOR ALL CATHOLIC SCHOOLS

All Catholic elementary and secondary schools in the Archdiocese shall abide by the four Catholic identity standards and the supporting Catholic identity policies that are central to the nature of a Catholic school. It is also imperative that any school called “Catholic” provide a level of academic excellence that is at least as distinguished as that in other schools of the region.³ Schools owned and operated by the Archdiocese of Washington shall be governed by additional policies, particularly those in the areas of excellence, affordability and accessibility.

1210 Communion and Cooperation with the Archbishop

All Catholic schools shall have a formal and defined relationship with the Archdiocese and specifically with the Archbishop who has oversight of the teaching of the faith in all Catholic schools. These practices are the practical mechanism to maintain communion within the Church.⁴

1211 Communion with the Local Church

All Catholic schools shall communicate, consult and collaborate with all involved parties, particularly the appropriate archdiocesan offices in an effort to ensure communion with the local Church.

1212 Pastor or Canonical Administrator Responsibilities

Throughout this document the term “pastor” or “canonical administrator” is used to designate the priest who is duly appointed to the pastoral governance of the parish

(pastor or parochial administrator) and is therefore responsible for and exercises oversight regarding all aspects of the school program because of his pastoral office. This responsibility follows on his appointment as pastor of a parish that has a school or that participates in an agreement with other parishes relative to a regional school, an incorporated regional school or a consortium school.

Archdiocesan parish-based schools are a ministry of the parish, and therefore the pastor or canonical administrator is directly responsible for and has oversight over all aspects of the school, working collaboratively with the principal. The pastor or canonical administrator has a particular responsibility to ensure the school has a strong Catholic identity and culture manifested in all areas of school life.

1213 Child Protection Policy

All Archdiocesan Catholic schools shall adhere to Archdiocesan child protection regulations as presented in the Child Protection Policy handbook.

1214 Catholic Identity Review

All Catholic schools' religious education programs, sacramental life and Catholic identity shall be reviewed by Archdiocesan officials at least once every three years. Such review shall include submission of a written report by the school and a visit by Archdiocesan officials.

1215 Relationship with Local Pastors and Parishes

All Catholic schools shall maintain a close and collaborative relationship with local pastors and parishes, particularly in the areas of religious education and sacramental life.

1220 Appropriate Celebration of Sacramental Life

All Catholic schools shall adhere to all Archdiocesan sacramental norms and policies to ensure the development of an authentic spiritual and sacramental life for students.

1221 Spiritual Formation

All Catholic schools shall provide appropriate and regular occasions for prayer, liturgical worship and the celebration of the Sacraments of Reconciliation and the Eucharist to ensure religious instruction and spiritual formation of students.

1222 Religious Instructions and Worship Attendance

All Catholic schools are places of faith formation and all Catholic school students, regardless of religious background, shall attend school prayer and worship services and fully participate in religious instruction. All Catholic students are expected to attend regular Sunday liturgies at their home parish and to receive frequently the Sacraments of Reconciliation and the Eucharist, once they are eligible.

1223 Sacramental Norms

All Catholic schools shall adhere to the sacramental norms and policies of the Archdiocese, and respect local parishes as the sacramental home for parents, students and all parishioners

1224 Sacramental Space

The celebration of the sacraments in all Catholic schools shall occur in appropriate spaces that are respectful and well suited to authentic worship.

- 1225 Sacramental Preparation
Pastors shall be responsible for the sacramental preparation of their parishioners. All Catholic schools, Archdiocesan and independent, shall collaborate with the pastors of students to ensure any school instruction for sacramental preparation is fully integrated with and supportive of the student's primary parish sacramental preparation program.
- 1226 Sacramental Celebration
First Reconciliation, First Communion and Confirmation shall be celebrated in the parish that the student's family attends. Pastors may allow exemptions to this policy.
- 1227 Prayer Life
Regular prayer and devotions shall be standard practice in all Catholic schools. The school day begins and ends with prayer and all meals are blessed.
- 1230 Teaching the Faith
All Catholic schools shall adhere to all Archdiocesan policies regarding religious education to ensure that the faith is effectively and authentically taught in the school.
- 1231 Oversight of the Archbishop
All Catholic schools shall conform in all matters of religious education to the oversight of the Archbishop.⁵
- 1232 Teaching of Religion
The teaching of religion in all Catholic schools shall be subject to the same standards of professionalism and excellence as all subjects in the school to include, but not be restricted to, allocation of resources, teacher professional development, evaluation, assessment and hours of instruction.
- 1233 Religious Education Foundation
The religious education program of all Catholic schools shall have as its foundation the Catechism of the Catholic Church, the United States Catholic Catechism for Adults, the General Directory of Catechesis and the National Directory of Catechesis, and also follow national and Archdiocesan directives. These programs shall conform to academic excellence policies as listed in Section 3000.
- 1234 Religion Teachers
All religion teachers shall be practicing Catholics, qualified and certified to teach religion by the Archdiocese and have a deep knowledge of doctrine and live as an authentic witness to the faith.⁶
- 1240 Environment and Catholic Identity
Catholic identity shall be present and explicit in all aspects of all Catholic schools, including the school's mission statement. The school presents evidence of clear commitment to witness the faith in all activities. The entire school shall be permeated with the Spirit of the Gospel for the effective formation and faith development of students.
- 1241 Archdiocesan School Mission Statements
Archdiocesan Catholic school mission statements shall reflect the teaching mission of the Catholic Church and the Archdiocese and shall be approved by and on file with the Catholic Schools Office. These statements shall be effectively communicated to all stakeholders with an emphasis on ensuring that all parents and guardians fully understand the Catholic identity of the school. The mission statement shall include and/or reflect the following elements:

- A. Fosters the love of Jesus and the Church, including the development of sacramental and spiritual life;
- B. Education in the truth of the faith based in the fullness of revelation contained in the Catholic Church;
- C. Development of virtues within the student that reflect the person of Christ.

1242 Catholic Schools' Self Evaluation

All Catholic schools shall regularly engage in Catholic identity self evaluation. The principal, pastor or canonical administrator, and advisory board shall review all plans, policies, handbooks, guidelines, teaching practices and events to ensure support for the implementation of the six tasks of catechesis outlined in the National Directory for Catechesis and the General Directory for Catechesis. Assessment instruments shall be approved by the Archdiocese.

1243 Principals and Catholic Identity

All principals or chief administrators shall be practicing Catholics who uphold the teaching of the faith and are committed to Catholic education that is academically excellent and rooted in Gospel values. Exceptions shall be permitted for one (1) year with the written approval of the Secretary of Education.

1244 Teachers and All School Staff

Catholic teachers and Catholic staff shall be hired whenever possible. Administrators, faculty and staff shall be qualified, supportive of the teachings of the Church and imbued with a strong sense of the mission of Catholic schools and act in ways that promote the best interests of the Church and do not violate the principles or tenets of the Catholic faith. All staff shall be responsible for integrating Catholic identity and Church teaching across the curriculum and all school activities.

All school administrators and all faculty shall adhere to Catholic faith, teaching and moral discipline, and shall not contradict the Catholic faith, teaching and moral discipline, and shall not harm communion with the Church.

1245 School Sponsored Guests and Activities

School sponsored guests, public statements, public events and community activities of all Catholic schools shall not contradict the Catholic faith, teaching and moral discipline, and shall not harm communion with the local Church.

1246 Physical Environment

The Archdiocesan Catholic school physical environment shall include religious signs and symbols that reflect the Catholic identity of the school, including pictures of the Holy Father and the Archbishop, and a statue of Mary. Every classroom shall have a crucifix and should have visible prayer/sacred spaces.

1248 Social Justice

The life of Catholic schools shall reflect the Catholic Church's teaching on social justice and witness service to others. The Catholic Church's teaching on ecumenism shall be respected.

SECTION 2000: GOVERNANCE

2000 SCHOOL STRUCTURES

The structures and responsibilities pertaining to day-to-day governance and financial viability for Catholic schools in the Archdiocese of Washington vary based on ownership and sponsorship.

2010 Schools Operated by Parishes or the Archdiocese

Throughout these policies the term “archdiocesan school” refers to those schools that are a program of a parish, a combination of parishes or of the archdiocese.
