

Moderator of the Curia

The Roman Catholic Archdiocese of Washington

Dear Brother in Christ,

I write today to provide you with updates and will continue to share information with you as needed.

Message from Father Carson

As previously announced, Cardinal Gregory has appointed me as Pastor of Saint Peter's Parish on Capitol Hill as of today, July 6, 2022. As such, I have resigned from my position as Vicar General and Moderator of the Curia.

For any matters you would normally contact me for assistance, please contact Mr. Terry Farrell, Chancellor and Executive Secretary of the Curia, at farrellt@adw.org, 301 853-4507 (office) or 202 531-4550 (cell) and he will be sure that your needs are addressed.

On a personal note, I extend my sincere gratitude to all of you, my brother priests, deacons, religious and staff of the Archdiocese of Washington, for your dedication to our local Church of Washington, for being steadfast in working to further our mission, and for your support of me during my tenure as the Vicar General and Moderator of the Curia. I also am very grateful for all of your prayers and Masses offered for my recovery from recent spine surgery. They have truly given me the strength of perseverance, and my recovery is continuing to go very well. Please know of my prayers for you as you keep up the work entrusted to our care in serving the Lord.

Future Priest Updates

Until further notice, the priest's updates that will be sent will appear in your email inbox with the sender appearing as Chancellor.
