This year's White Mass will expand to celebrate our baptismal promise and call to holiness and service. We honor and value the giftedness and the full, active participation of persons from the Deaf Community and persons living with disability. We welcome all who minister through charity and service. Each person, no matter their gifts, is called to honor and advocate for the dignity of the human person, embrace a consistent life ethic, and share in the joy of all creation.

Hosted by: The Offices of Deaf and Disability Ministry, Life Issues and Social Justice of The Roman Catholic Archdiocese of Washington.
