TWENTY-NINTH ANNUAL BLUE MASS
May 2, 2023

With this Twenty-ninth Annual Blue Mass, St. Patrick Church continues a tradition that flourished here, in a different form, from 1934 to 1975. During those years, police officers would congregate annually to pray for their comrades who fell in the line of duty and ask God's continued blessing for their own safety. The name of the Mass comes from the "blue" color of their uniforms.

We welcome all those involved in public safety and law enforcement

Prelude My Spirit Be Joyful

Johann Sebastian Bach

Presentation of the Colors

Entrance Hymn

Refrain (cantor, then all)

Al - le - lu - ia, al - le - lu - ia, al - le - lu - ia!

1

The strife is o’er, the battle done;
Now is the Victor’s triumph won!
Songs of rejoicing have begun.
Alleluia! Refrain

2

The powers of death have done their worst;
But Christ their legions has dispersed.
Let shouts of holy joy outburst.
Alleluia! Refrain

3

On the third day Christ rose again,
Glorious in majesty to reign.
O let us swell the joyful strain.
Alleluia! Refrain

4

He closed the yawning gates of hell;
The bars from heaven’s high portal fell.
Let hymns of praise his triumph tell.
Alleluia! Refrain

5

Lord, by the stripes which wounded you,
Free from death’s sting your servants too,
That we may live and sing to you.
Alleluia! Refrain

Hymn God of Our Fathers

- 1 God of our fathers, whose almighty hand
Leads forth in beauty all the starry band
Of shiny worlds in splendor through the skies,
Our grateful songs before your throne arise.
- 2 Your love divine has led us in the past,
In this free land by you our lot is cast;
Be our strong ruler, guardian, guide, and stay,
Your word our law, your paths our chosen way.
- 3 From war’s alarms, from deadly pestilence,
Your mighty arm our ever-sure defense;
Your true religion in our hearts increase,
Your bounteous goodness nourish us in peace.
- 4 Refresh your people on their toilsome way,
Lead us from night to never-ending day;
Fill all our lives with heav’n-born love and grace,
Until at last, we meet before your face.

In 2022, our nation lost a total of 224 Law Enforcement Officers in the line of duty. Today we honor their service and sacrifice and pay special tribute to the 20 from the Washington, D.C. Metropolitan area and 25 from previous years.

Hymn America the Beautiful

- 1 O beautiful for spacious skies, For amber waves of grain,
For purple mountain majesties Above the fruited plain!
America! America! God shed his grace on thee,
And crown thy good with brotherhood From sea to shining sea!
- 2 O beautiful for pilgrim feet, Whose stern, impassioned stress
A thoroughfare for freedom beat Across the wilderness!
America! America! God mend thine ev'ry flaw,
Confirm thy soul in self-control, Thy liberty in law.
- 3 O beautiful for heroes proved In liberating strife,
Who more than self their country loved, And mercy more than life!
America! America! May God thy gold refine,
Till all success be nobleness, And ev'ry gain divine.
- 4 O beautiful for patriot dream That sees beyond the years
Thine alabaster cities gleam, Undimmed by human tears!
America! America! God shed his grace on thee,
And crown thy good with brotherhood From sea to shining sea!

Postlude Allegro (Concerto for Two Trumpets) Antonio Vivaldi

Prayer after Communion

GUIDELINES FOR THE RECEPTION OF COMMUNION

For Catholics
As Catholics, we fully participate in the celebration of the Eucharist when we receive Holy Communion. We are encouraged to receive Communion devoutly and frequently. In order to be properly disposed to receive Communion, participants should not be conscious of grave sin and normally should have fasted for one hour. A person who is conscious of grave sin is not to receive the Body and Blood of the Lord without prior sacramental confession except for a grave reason where there is no opportunity for confession. In this case, the person is to be mindful of the obligation to make an act of perfect contrition, including the intention of confessing as soon as possible (canon 916). A frequent reception of the Sacrament of Penance is encouraged for all.

For our fellow Christians
We welcome our fellow Christians to this celebration of the Eucharist as our brothers and sisters. We pray that our common baptism and the action of the Holy Spirit in this Eucharist will draw us closer to one another and begin to dispel the sad divisions which separate us. We pray that these will lessen and finally disappear, in keeping with Christ’s prayer for us “that they may all be one” (John 17:21).

Because Catholics believe that the celebration of the Eucharist is a sign of the reality of the oneness of faith, life, and worship, members of those churches with whom we are not yet fully united are ordinarily not admitted to Holy Communion. Eucharistic sharing in exceptional circumstances by other Christians requires permission according to the directives of the diocesan bishop and the provisions of canon law (canon 844 §4). Members of the Orthodox Churches, the Assyrian Church of the East, and the Polish National Catholic Church are urged to respect the discipline of their own Churches. According to Roman Catholic discipline, the Code of Canon Law does not object to the reception of communion by Christians of these Churches (canon 844 §3).

For Non-Christians
We also welcome to this celebration those who do not share our faith in Jesus Christ. While we cannot admit them to Holy Communion, we ask them to offer their prayers for the peace and the unity of the human family.

For those not receiving Holy Communion
All who are not receiving Holy Communion are encouraged to express in their hearts a prayerful desire for unity with the Lord Jesus and with one another.
