

The Roman Catholic
Archdiocese of Washington

ANTI-PORNOGRAPHY RESOURCES

INTERNET FILTERING & MEDIA SAFETY

- www.foryourmarriage.org/help-for-men-and-women-struggling-with-pornography-use-or-addiction/#ift – Sponsored by the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops and the Catholic Communication Campaign, ForYourMarriage.org offers resources to help couples and families live Christ-centered lives. This site provides information on internet content filtering and accountability tools.
- <https://www.bark.us/protects/home/> – This site offers internet filtering tools to help parents keep children safe on their mobile devices and on the go.
- <https://changetheconversation.org/internetsafety2/> – Change the Conversation provides tools and tips to educate families about online apps, and resources to help protect children and teens online.
- www.covenanteyes.com – Covenant Eyes helps protect your family online. Learn how family members use the internet and how to filter content to protect them.
- www.Enough.org – This site offers Internet Safety 101, a multi-media program that empowers parents, educators, and other caring adults with the knowledge and resources needed to effectively protect children from online pornography, sexual predators, cyberbullies, and other internet threats relating to social networking and online gaming, especially on mobile devices.
- www.isafe.org – iSafe is a non-profit organization dedicated to securing personal data for minors while providing educational and commercial organizations with identity management, cyber security, and e-safety instructional programming.
- www.familysafemedia.com – Faily Safe Media provides parental control solutions for families concerned about the profanity, promiscuity and violence in today's media and entertainment.
- www.cleanhotels.com – This site offers a network of lodging facilities that—based on some of the best available research—do not offer in-room, “adult” (pornographic) pay-per-view entertainment.
- <http://mcap1.com/mcap/newsletters> – The Maryland Coalition Against Pornography is a volunteer-based organization, focused on the U.S. Capital region, that works to protect children, families, and communities from the devastating effects of pornography. This page provides quarterly newsletters offering timely tips for online and media safety, as well as resources for talking to children and teens about the harmful effects of pornography.

Disclaimer: Please note that the websites, groups, and authors above are not affiliated with The Roman Catholic Archdiocese of Washington. We provide this information solely for your information. We are not responsible for, nor do we endorse, their policies, the views they express, the products and services they offer, or the content of their materials or websites. To the best of our knowledge, the information listed here is appropriate, faithful to Catholic Church teaching and accurate at the time of posting. Agencies, nonprofits, and other institutions can and do change their mission and websites. Please consider this as you review these resources. The Roman Catholic Archdiocese of Washington makes no representations concerning the quality of medical care or level of professional skills of any specific counselor or healthcare provider that may be mentioned in these resources. Each person is encouraged to make his/her own investigation prior to consulting for treatment. Any decision to use a professional from these resources is the sole responsibility of the user.

If you should notice anything offensive to Catholic teaching in the above resources, please contact the Office of Family Life.