“A PLACE AT THE TABLE: African-Americans on the Path to Sainthood”

Stella Maris Productions, LLC ©

The Roman Catholic Archdiocese of Washington invites parishes and ministries to host a screening of the documentary film, A Place at the Table, which tells the story of the lives of the first six Black Americans to be on the path to Catholic sainthood. Learn more about these outstanding Black Americans and hear of their lives of faith. By sharing their stories, their contributions, and their impact on the lives of so many, we can make a difference.

This documentary is rated PG-13.
Due to the film’s length, we offer the option to screen the documentary in two parts.
