

The following clergy of the Archdiocese of Washington have been the subject of an allegation of sexual abuse of a minor that meets one or more of the following criteria: (a) the allegation was admitted; (b) guilt was established through a criminal, civil, or canonical process; or (c) the allegation was otherwise supported by evidence sufficient to warrant inclusion on this list.

The existence of an allegation or inclusion on this list should not be construed to mean that there has been an ultimate determination that the clergy member is guilty of sexual abuse of a minor, unless there is a specific notation that guilt was established after a formal criminal or civil law process, or an appropriate process conducted under Canon Law.
