Youth Mass for Life to Gather Young People for Celebration

Witness talks, prayer, music and a conversation with Cardinal Robert McElroy will highlight January 23 event

WASHINGTON, D.C. – Ahead of the annual March for Life, local Catholic youth will gather tomorrow, Friday, January 23, 2026, at the Cathedral of St. Matthew the Apostle in Washington, DC for a joyful celebration of life.

The morning will begin with music, prayer, witness talks, and an opportunity for participants to engage in a conversation with Cardinal Robert McElroy. The gathering will conclude with the celebration of Mass, with Cardinal McElroy serving as the principal celebrant. Father Danny Morrison, parochial vicar at the Church of the Little Flower in Bethesda, Md., will give the homily.

Media are welcome to attend in person or make use of the livestream for reporting purposes.
