Please join us for a special gathering to discuss the ADW Black Ministry Plan process in relation to the National Black Catholic Congress. Since June 2025, the planning committee has been diligently discerning the needs and interests of our Black Catholic community in order to develop a meaningful pastoral plan of action.

St. John the Evangelist Catholic Church

10103 Georgia Avenue

Silver Spring, MD 20902

All are welcome so please share this information with fellow parishioners, family and friends and encourage them to participate. We look forward to sharing updates on the planning process, presenting the objective statements that have emerged, and listening to feedback from our communities.
